Dear Dr. Smith:

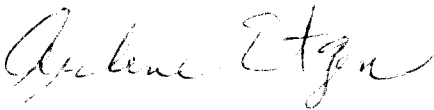

Your letter addressed to the Monmouth County Court House, Freehold has been referred to this office for response.

The Robbins Burial Ground is located on property owned by the State of New Jersey, known as the Assunpink Green Acres.

We are attempting to determine if the State is having surveys completed and what plans they may have for the burial ground.

As soon as all information is received I will forward same to you.

Yours truly,

RE: ROBBINS BURIAL GROUND

Dear Dr. Smith:

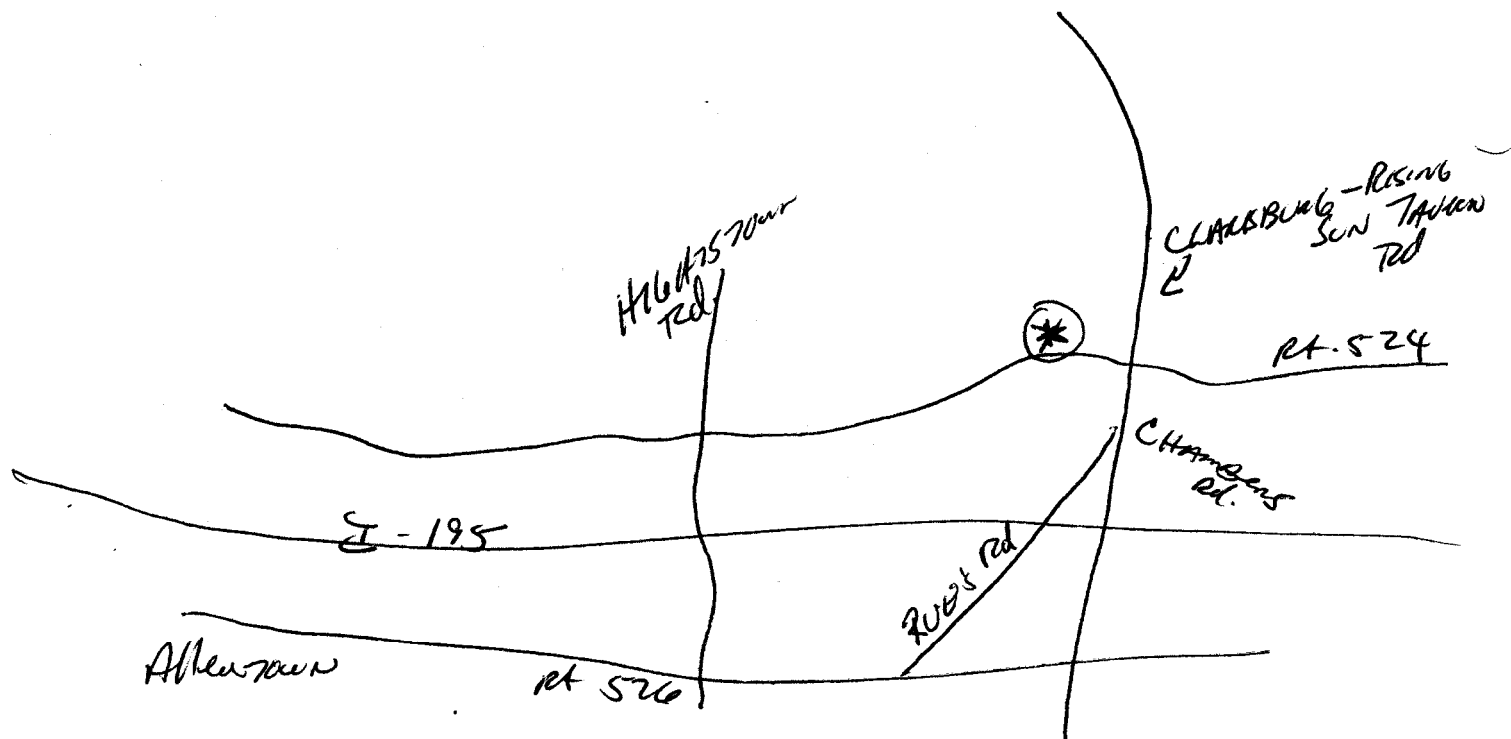

We have determined from Park Rangers in the Assunpink that the Boy Scouts placed the ribbons in the Burial Ground as a result of a project they were completing.

The State of New Jersey has no plans to disturb same. Please feel free to contact me if I can be of further assistance to you.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Arlene Etgen". The signature is fluid and stylized, with the first name "Arlene" and last name "Etgen" clearly distinguishable.

Cemetery is only marked by a monument at the roadside erected in 1938 by Robbins descendants. Cemetery is ~ 150 ft off road - up hill.

En June 1992. evidence of margins of cemetery - borders are noted. Most stones have old flags.

Watch for poison ivy!
